Scottish Society for the History of Photography Journal – Studies in Photography

SSHOP <http://sshop.org.uk/> SSHoP Advertising advertising@sshop.org.uk

This high production quality journal was established 30 years ago. It celebrates the best in European contemporary and historical photography. It has moved from a member's only publication to a journal now available to the general public. It is published twice a year, in full colour and is launched at the Scottish National Portrait Gallery with a launch party in June and December. The selling price for the journal is £8 and has a circulation of 900. This year the journal will also go to 416 Secondary Schools in Scotland thanks to a very special donation made to SSHoP.
